

Welcome to Offenburg University of Applied Sciences

Team Schluckspecht Successful at Shell Eco-Marathon

At the 2018 Shell Eco-marathon in London, which just took place in early July, the University's Schluckspecht team brought home an excellent fourth place in the efficiency competition and a third place in the autonomous class, a...[more]

Remembering Gerlinde Kuhn Münch

Offenburg University remembers Mrs. Gerlinde Kuhn Münch, a long-standing head of Offenburg's Senior Service who held a Medal of Honor from the University. [more]

Distinguished Guests at IfTI Global Symposium in Gengenbach

More than 130 participants from around the world found their way to the Monastery in Gengenbach on June 19-20, 2018, and discussed current challenges of world trade. [more]

Magma and Sweaty Remain World Vice-Champions

A great success for the two Offenburg-University teams: Both were able to defend their vice-world champion titles at the RoboCup in Montreal/Canada.[more]

20 Years of International Master's Degrees at Hochschule Offenburg

In 1998, one of the first English-language Master's degree programs in Germany was started at Hochschule Offenburg. The anniversary was duly celebrated on June 1 and 2.[more]

20th Anniversary Celebration at the Graduate School

Twenty years ago, one of the first English-taught Master's degree programs in Germany started in Offenburg. Today, the Graduate School of Offenburg University offers six English-taught Master's degree programs, and more than 1200...[more]

Cross-border research cooperations on the Upper Rhine

The event "Marktplatz Industrie 4.0" on Wednesday on the Offenburg campus showed that the application-oriented universities are guarantors of the innovative power of the trinational Upper Rhine region.[more]