

Welcome to Offenburg University of Applied Sciences

Invitation to the Graduation Ceremony

The Rector and the Senate of the University of Applied Sciences Offenburg invite the graduates of the summer semester 2018 for Friday, October 26, at 5 p.m. to the university celebration in the Oberrheinhalle. [\[more\]](#)

Zonta Scholarship - Apply Now!

The Zonta Club is awarding two Science Fellowships to support women's higher-degree studies, amounting to 2,400 EUR each. Applications are open to women students in the departments of Mechanical and Process Engineering and...[\[more\]](#)

From the wide world to Offenburg

131 international students from all over the world began their studies at Offenburg University in the winter semester 2018/19. They come from 33 countries. . [\[more\]](#)

Members appointed to IfTI Practitioner Advisory Board

Offenburg University today welcomed the appointment of the Institute for Trade and Innovation's (IfTI) Practitioner Advisory Board members: Nasser M. Al-Thekair, General Manager at ITFC, Markus Dauber, CEO at Volksbank in the...[\[more\]](#)

More Than Half a Million Viewers Follow Lunar Eclipse Livestream

The Media and Information department broadcast the lunar eclipse live from the top of the Feldberg. Between 7 pm and 1:30 am, more than 500,000 viewers called up the livestream on YouTube.[\[more\]](#)

"Schluckspecht" Successful at Shell Eco-marathon

At the 2018 Shell Eco-marathon in early July, which took place in London, the University's Schluckspecht team brought home an excellent fourth place in the efficiency competition and a third place in the autonomous class, a newly...[\[more\]](#)

Remembering Gerlinde Kuhn Münch

Offenburg University remembers Mrs. Gerlinde Kuhn Münch, a long-standing head of Offenburg's Senior Service who held a Medal of Honor from the University. [\[more\]](#)