

International News and Events

Alumni of the Graduate School receives a Million EUR Grant

Pavel Marichal, an alumnus of HS Offenburg (M.Sc. Process Engineering) has been granted a million euros from the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi) for developing a disruptive technology during his...[more]

Get-together with Companies

On May 16, the Career Center invited companies from the region to present themselves between 13:00 and 17:00 o'clock on the Campus Offenburg, Foyer D building.[more]

Top marks for the Offenburg University of Applied Sciences

In the current ranking of the "Centre for Higher Education Development" (CHE), the subjects mechanical engineering, materials technology, electrical engineering/information technology, mechatronics and medical...[more]

Information about scholarships

Scholarship wanted? At the scholarship day on Tuesday, 30 April 2019, between 11:30 h and 16:00 h, interested parties will learn about the various funding opportunities available.[more]

Festive Farewell at the University Celebration

425 graduates completed their studies at Offenburg University of Applied Sciences in the winter semester 2018/2019. On Friday evening, they were given a festive farewell in the Oberrheinhalle.[more]

SAVE² Project Kicks Off Successfully

A joint workshop between Offenburg University and its Moroccan partners, Cadi Ayyad University Marrakech, Ibn Zohr University Agadir and the Institut de Recherche en Energie Solaire et Energies Nouvelles (IRESEN) in Rabat, marked...[more]

Greenlight Students Returning from Morocco with New Projects

Offenburg University's GREENLIGHT initiative is further expanding its cooperation with Moroccan project partners. A boarding school for young girls and a home and educational center for street children have been added to the...[more]

