

ENGLISH FOR INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY PROFESSIONALS

Student Load: 30 SWS

Instructor: Jonathan Davis

Textbooks: Lecture Material, Industry Textbooks, Seminar Material, and English as a Second Language Textbooks.

Goals: The course English for Information Technology Professionals has the following goals:

- Prepare the student to recognize basic IT related words and their acronyms.
- Know and understand how to write basic technical English sentences and paragraphs.
- Be able to communicate in both technical and non-technical settings and situations.
- Know and understand how to prepare technical presentations.
- Write technical English documentation.

Content: Planning and writing written and spoken messages. Technical presentations using Power Point. Vocabulary for systems administration, network technologies, cyber security technologies, and other Information Technology specific topics.

Prerequisites: B1 English

Method of teaching: Lecture, interactive class projects, videos, and real-world demonstrations.

Examination: 60 minutes (written)